IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA

BARRY YOUNG,

Plaintiff,

v.

Civil Action No. 07-3575

PENNSYLVANIA HUMAN RELATIONS COMMISSION,

Defendant.

MEMORANDUM & ORDER

May 16, 2008

Before the court is plaintiff's timely pro se motion to reconsider the court's dismissal of this action in its order of May 2, 2008. See Docket Nos. 7-8. Upon reconsideration, the court acknowledges plaintiff's citation to Eleventh Amendment doctrine holding that the Eleventh Amendment does not bar civil actions against individual state officers sued in their personal capacity. The court hereby clarifies that its order of May 2, 2008, was a dismissal without prejudice, meaning that plaintiff is not barred from bringing these claims again if he amends his complaint to cure the defect in his prior complaint. Plaintiff shall have thirty days from the date of this order within which to refile this action as against individual state officers rather than against the state agency itself.
